

FACTS WHAT DOES SEACOAST COMMERCE BANK DO WITH YOUR INFORMATION?

Why? Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What? The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. The information can include:

- Social Security Number and Income
- Account Balances and Payment History
- Credit History and Credit Scores

When you are no longer our customer, we may continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How? All financial companies need to share Customer's personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their Customer's personal information; the reasons Seacoast Commerce Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does Seacoast Commerce Bank share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes- such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus.	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes- to offer our products and services to you	No	We don't share
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	Yes
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes- information about your transactions and experiences	No	We don't share
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes- information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Questions? Call 1-877-531-5745 or go to www.sccombank.com

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Seacoast Commerce Bank

What we do

How does Seacoast Commerce Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does Seacoast Commerce Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or deposit money
- pay your bills or apply for a loan
- use your credit card or debit card

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes - information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies. See below for more on your rights under state law

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial or nonfinancial companies.

- Seacoast Commerce Bank does not share with our affiliates.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial or nonfinancial companies.

- Seacoast Commerce Bank does not share with any nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- Seacoast Commerce Bank's joint marketing partners include business loan originators.

Other Important Information

California Financial Information Privacy Act (SB1). California law applies specifically to financial institutions doing business in California who disclose nonpublic information of a California resident. Seacoast Commerce Bank shares nonpublic information with nonaffiliated third parties where permitted by law. Seacoast Commerce Bank shares with nonaffiliated financial companies for joint marketing purposes and offers an opt out provision. Seacoast Commerce Bank is in compliance with SB1.