

Seacoast Commerce Bank Completes Relocation of Glendale Branch and SBA Loan Production Office

SAN DIEGO, CA – Nov. 4, 2013 – Seacoast Commerce Bank (OTCQB: SCCB) today announced that it has completed the relocation of its full-service branch and SBA loan production office in Glendale, California, to 505 N. Brand Blvd., Suite 110, Glendale, CA 91203. Seacoast opened the Glendale branch in a temporary facility while the permanent location was being completed. The branch will be managed by Carlo Honanian, Branch Relationship Manager, and Julie Yegiaian, Branch Operations Manager, both long-time banking veterans in Glendale who previously managed the Glendale office of First California Bank. Seacoast is taking over the First California Bank branch facility recently closed by Pacific Western Bank, after it acquired and merged First California Bank into Pacific Western Bank. Seacoast's SBA loan production officers in Glendale, CA, include Robert Flores and Kelvin Davis.

Richard M. Sanborn, President & Chief Executive Officer, commented, "We are very excited to finally be in our permanent branch location, and, have Carlo and Julie growing our deposit presence in Los Angeles County, alongside Robert and Kelvin growing our SBA lending presence. Presently, over one-third of our SBA loan production comes from the Los Angeles area, and having a full-service branch in that market helps us better serve that client base."

Carlo Honanian, Vice President and Branch Relationship Manager, stated, "After the announcement of First California's sale, Julie and I were presented with many opportunities. After careful consideration and review, it became clear that Seacoast Commerce Bank was the right choice for us, and the individuals and businesses in the greater Los Angeles area looking for an exceptional bank. Seacoast's philosophy, business process, and focus on service will make us the bank of choice in the area."
